Caracas, 29th December 2009

Dear Deaf Youth Associations / Deaf Associations

The Venezuelan Federation of the Deaf (FEVENSOR) and World Federation of the Deaf Youth Section, WFDYS are happy to tell you that we are organizing 2nd WFDYS Children Camp in Venezuela 1-8 August 2010 for Deaf children aged 10-12.

The camp will be held in a Resort Hotel at Portofino, "El Humo" Beach, Venezuela, which is located at Margarita Island, Nueva Esparta State around 1 hour from Santiago Mariño International Airport with bus.

During the camp you will meet other deaf children from all over the world for a week, you will have a lot of fun activities, visit different tourist places, castles and beaches, theme parks (Waterland), natural parks, museums and historical sites, games, cultural activities, workshops and courses among other. International sign language will be the communication way during the camp. You will also meet the Venezuelan culture with an amazing nature, share and exchange your different cultures from the entire world. It will be an unforgettable experience for you.

The camp fee is free and includes the accommodation, meals, transportation t/r Santiago Marino International Airport and the local transportation, activities, camp material, camp DVD (photos and videos) and camp T-shirt. The fee does not include flight ticket. So you have to pay your ticket for yourselves. Santiago Marino International Airport is located 25 km away from the city of Polamar (Please confirm the flights with your travel agency)

The camp registration is limited up to 200 participants, 2 children by the age of 10-12 per country are estimated with 2 children at the waiting list and one leader by the age of 21-30. We suggest one girl and one boy per country and the same with the waiting list. Please note that each country is responsible for selection of applicants who will represent their country during 2nd Children Camp in Venezuela. We will not do the selecting. Deadline for submitting camp applicants is 15-04-2010

To ensure smooth communication and flow of information, it is the responsibility of the Deaf Youth Associations / Deaf Associations in each country to assimilate and disseminate camp information to their local Deaf communities. Interested teenagers are to contact directly to their own associations for more information or to apply. Please keep checking www.wfdys.org/camp2010, as the camp information is subject to change.

Deaf Youth Associations / Deaf Associations can communicate directly to us via email or mail for any questions, information request and sending of applicants.

Thank you and we look forward to meet you soon.

Best regards

Victor Baute Sanchez
